

Winter Grazing Seminar

January 20-21, 2009

Choteau Pavilion

Agenda

Tuesday January 20th

- 12:00-1:00 Lunch served
- 1:00-1:15 Welcome to the seminar from Rangeland Resources Executive Committee and the Teton Conservation District
- 1:15-1:30 Welcome to Choteau from Flint Rasmussen
- 1:30-2:45 Featured Speaker: Trent Loos. "Connecting rural and urban America by sharing the positive story of production agriculture"
- 2:45-3:00 Break
- 3:00-4:15 Charley Orchard, Land EKG: Pasture Monitoring for Management Decisions
- 4:15-5:00 Dr. Tahnee Szymanski, Department of Livestock Field Veterinarian: Bovine Trichomoniasis Program Update
- 5:30-6:30 No-Host Social at the Choteau Pavilion
- 6:30-9:00 Banquet
Master of Ceremonies: Shawn Fladager
Keynote Address: TBA
Entertainment: Ken Overcast

Wednesday January 21st

- 7:00-8:00 Breakfast served at the Choteau Pavilion
- 8:00-9:00 Kevin Good, CattleFax: Cattle & Beef Situation and Outlook
- 9:00-10:00 Thomas Bass, MSU Extension Livestock Environment Associate Specialist: Animal Feeding Operations and Water Quality
- 10:00-10:15 Break
- 10:15-11:00 Thedis Crowe, Bureau of Indian Affairs Rangeland Management Specialist and Mark Maggee, Director of Blackfeet Land Department: Grazing Opportunities and Pasture Authorizations
- 11:00-12:00 Local Producer Panel, moderated by Teton Extension Agent Mark Majors